ATP ARCS(TM) Continues to Expand Into Commercial Aviation With the Acquisition of Selected Assets of AOC Services, Inc.

BRISBANE, Calif., Oct. 30 /PRNewswire/ -- ATP Aviation Regulatory and Compliance Services (ATP ARCS(TM)) announced it has acquired selected assets of AOC Services, Inc., a Missouri Corporation based in Lake Saint Louis, providing Subject Matter Expert (SME) consulting services support for air carrier fleet management, certification, and regulatory compliance. ATP ARCS(TM) is the leader in the developing field of regulatory oversight, offering the web based ICAP(TM) hosted solutions to assist with real time and fully integrated compliance, conformance and audit management services for Part 121 certificate holders.

AOC Services Inc. provides consultation for aviation operations and air carrier certificate services, management, flight operations, operational control, dispatch, airworthiness, system safety audits, risk management and regulatory compliance for airlines and fleet operations.

"The AOC team is delighted to join forces with ATP ARCS," said Mark Fanger, AOC President, "we have employed the ICAP tool and find it unparalleled for automating the management of the FAA Systems Safety, IOSA and DoD programs."

"The addition of AOC Services positions ATP ARCS to provide the most comprehensive and direct pathway for gaining, managing and maintaining compliance for new entrant carriers working toward certification and carriers coming under ATOS or already in ATOS," said Caroline Daniels, President of ATP ARCS(TM).

About AOC Services, Inc.

AOC employs experienced aviation professionals to provide aviation management support for airlines and fleet operators in the areas of flight operations, airworthiness, safety management and regulatory compliance.
